

RABBI MOSES J. GRIES.

Rev. Moses J. Gries of Chattanooga, Tenn., has accepted the call to the Tifereth Israel congregation of this city and will reach his new field of labor in time to take part in the dedicatory exercises of the new chapel at Mayfield cemetery on Thanksgiving day. The Chattanooga Times says: Although less than twenty-five years of age, Rabbi Gries has taken a commanding position as a pulpit orator and rabbinical scholar. By his powerful logic, close researches and insight into ecclesiastical studies he has become one of the foremost rabbis of the country and the future is indeed bright for him. Rabbi Gries' departure from Chattanooga will be regretted not only by the members of his congregation, but the public generally, with whom the young minister is a favorite.
