

WILL DECORATE GRAVES.

Cleveland Jews Prepare to Honor Those Buried in Cemeteries About City.

Cleveland lodge 16, Independent Order B'nai B'rith, at the suggestion of Rabbi Moses J. Gries, will decorate the graves of all the Jewish soldiers buried in Cleveland cemeteries.

Sigmund Shlesinger, chairman of the committee in charge, and himself a veteran of the Indian wars, has compiled a list of the names of all the Jewish soldiers obtainable from the roster of the local G. A. R.

There may be some names omitted. It is requested that relatives and friends of all Jewish soldiers buried in any of the Cleveland cemeteries, send the names and the places of burial to the secretary of the lodge, Alfred A. Benesch, 620 Society for Savings building.
