

HERE is a report of the Cleveland Plaindealer of June 19:—"Nearly one hundred members of the Temple Alumni association attended the annual picnic and reunion of the association at Willoughbeach park yesterday afternoon (Sabbath, June 18). The young people were all graduates of the confirmation class and have been associated with each other since childhood. In the afternoon a ball game was played between the Willoughby high school and Temple teams, which resulted in a score of 19 to 9 in favor of the Temple. Rabbi Moses J. Gries played a star game at first base and virtually won the game for the Temple team. After the supper, which was held in the pavilion, a dance was held for the young people."—And these are thy gods, O Israel!
