

FAVORS CHRISTIAN SABBATH

A Hebrew Rabbi in Cleveland Urges Its Adoption.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—Local Hebrew congregations are much exercised over a sermon preached by Rabbi Moses J. Gries in the Temple, in which he urged the adoption of Sunday as the Hebrew Sabbath. The Board of Trustees of the Temple will take the subject up and consider the advisability of making the change.

The attendance of the Saturday services has for a long time been very small. The old people, however, are very tenacious of the Saturday obser-
